"A masterpiece. I couldn't put it down." —Nisha Manek, M.D.

"What matters is here!" —Fr. Richard Rohr, OFM.

"Splendid and moving... full of gifts for the reader"—Francis X. Clooney, SJ, Prof. of Divinity, Harvard University

Dr. Grace serves as Professor of Religious Studies and Steward of the Meditation Program at the University of Redlands.

"In these pages are told the simple secrets of love, and Fran's story to uncover and live them... Here are our tears and crises, sudden moments of joy, simple human experiences combined with the taste of a deeper truth. This is the most precious offering we can make to life, to live this story, just as Fran has lived hers."

– Foreword by Llewellyn Vaughan-Lee
The Golden Sufi Center

"A decade ago when Fran Grace began her research, almost no one could have predicted the polemic times we are currently experiencing, and thus the timing of the book is perfect - even as The Power of Love will be timeless in its influence."
